

Public Workshop

Voters of Hood County, Texas:

Hood County Elections Office has invited Hart InterCivic and Election Systems & Software (ES&S) to hold public interactive sessions to demonstrate potential upgrades to the Hood County voting equipment. The demonstrations will take place over a one day period. We invite you to attend both presentations. You will have an opportunity to test out the voting equipment and ask questions. A survey will be provided for you to complete. Your feedback is important to us.
