

County Judge Ron Massingill
100 W. Pearl St, Granbury TX 76048

Press Release July 3rd, 2020 - COVID-19 Interim Update

A Hood County resident in their 80s passed away yesterday, 7-2-2020 from COVID-19 complications following hospitalization. The resident had other health issues complicated by COVID-19.

We are still reviewing dozens of new COVID-19 positive case reports across Hood County from the last few days, with approximately 100 active cases as we enter the July 4th holiday weekend.

Judge Massingill will not request an exemption from Gov Abbott's latest order, which requires Hood County residents to wear masks in public or situations where social distancing is not possible.
